Solemnity of All Saints

Today we celebrate a special feast day for all those who are in heaven. This includes those people who have been canonized as Saints by the Church and all of those who have not been canonized. We honor all the people who have died and are in heaven now with God forever. This week's Gospel talks about the "Beatitudes." These important statements show us how living a blessed life looks differently than the way we usually think it would. Jesus shares with all who are listening that God loves all of His people. He will share His Kingdom with all who have faith, especially those who are not focused on things of this world but rather the things of Heaven. Jesus promises us that these people are not forgotten. Their reward will be in Heaven, not on earth. Jesus warns those of us whose hearts are focused on the things of the earth (money, possessions, popularity, having our own way). He tells us that none of these things can replace God's love. We must always put God first in our lives. When we put God first in our day-to-day life, we live our lives differently! As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to take care of our neighbors and live for God, not for the world.

Everyone who attends receives a booklet with tips to assist you in being prepared for surprising emotions that may hit over the holidays, what to do about traditions and other coming changes, how to handle holiday parties and invitations, and how to survive potentially awkward moments with other people. The cost is $7.00 for the book. To register, contact Bernie Tomasso at 315-246-3440 or berniet8@gmail.com.

Intentions for November

For the proper use of wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

Pray for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons.
Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call.
May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

National Vocation Awareness Week, celebrated November 1-7, 2026, is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. NVAW began in 1976 when the U. S. bishops designated the 28th Sunday of the year for NVAW. In 1997, this celebration was moved to coincide with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which falls on January 13 in 2013. Beginning in 2014, NVAW was moved to the first full week of November.

Election Day Ziti Dinner sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, will take place on Tuesday, November 3rd, from 4:00pm-7:00pm at St. Joseph Church in Weedsport. Dinners are $12.00 and include pasta, meatballs, salad, bread and dessert. Children from 6-12 are $5.00 and 5 and under are free. You may dine-in or take-out. There will also be a 50/50 raffle. Donations of desserts are gladly accepted. Please drop off dessert donations from 1:00pm on of.
